What is the Children in Care Council about?

The children in Care Council are a group of Children and Young People in Care who help to shape the care system. They are involved with policy changes for children in care, delivering training, and getting the voices of Children and Young People heard.

We meet twice a month every two weeks on a Wednesday. The group has a chair person who is changed every year and this enables you to gain skills like confidence and being able to speak in front of a group of

Do you want to see changes in the service you receive?

Do you want to have your say?

Do you want your voice to be heard?

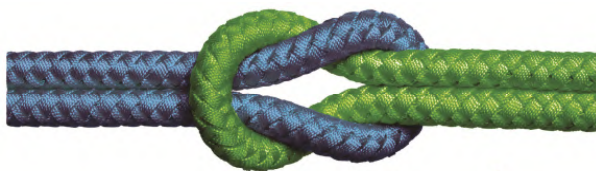

Are you fed up of the way people view children in care?

If so...

THERE'S A PLACE FOR YOU ON THE

CHILDREN IN CARE COUNCIL!

Are you a young person aged 11-16 years old? We would love for you to come along and join us on the Children in Care Council, your opinion matters to us, and we want to help you get it heard! Our voices are stronger together!
